

Partnership Planning

Aboriginal Carbon Foundation

Social license to operate

Fulfilling UN SDGs

Meeting RAP Goals

Meeting Sustainability Goals

Achieving CSR

Employee satisfaction and company values

Carbon Neutrality with Community Credits, Farmer Credits, Blue Carbon Credits

Long term supply

Community visits

Community and environmental outcomes with Cultural Fire Credits, Premium Offsets and Reef Credits

Local jobs as verifiers

Corporates

Cross promotion

Access to networks

Sponsorship

Volunteering/In-kind contributions

First chance for employment opportunities

Investment in establishing carbon farming project

Market advice

R&D investment in products and services

Access to specialist skills

Career and trainee opportunities

Educate investors and shareholders on climate risks

Short-term outcomes

Communities engaged in carbon projects

Traditional Owners cultural control over carbon projects

Communities have resources to invest in their work

Nationally accredited training facilitated on Country

Skills transferred into Communities

Rangers and TOs qualified as verifiers

Investment in local business

Cultural and social sites well maintained

Biodiversity increased; bushfires and GHG emissions reduced

Medium-term outcomes

Skills development transitioned into local business development

Capacity building system created to manage carbon projects

Employment identified and increased with partnership companies

Cultural knowledge and practice strengthened

Locally managed and controlled, sustainable carbon economies established

Verified environmental, social and cultural outcomes

Peer to peer strengths-based approach nationally

Long-term outcomes

Thriving Indigenous businesses on Country

Contribution to global targets

Carbon neutral companies with a social license to operate

Healthy Country and Communities